

Photographing a winter wonderland

Each year, the Greenfield Recorder holds an amateur photography contest and exhibit as part of the annual Winter Carnival. Three winners in the color category and three winners in the black-and-white category are chosen, this year from a crop of 81 entries. The winners are on display with other submissions at Wilson's Department Store, Studio C, in Greenfield, through Saturday, Feb. 16. All photos depict winter subjects and scenes in the Franklin County/North Quabbin region. For a complete schedule of events during the 97th annual Winter Carnival, and for more information, visit greenfieldrecreation.com/wintercarnival.

CONTRIBUTED PHOTO
Northfield resident Melanie Phillips won third place for her color photo of playing fields in Deerfield.

First place — color: Brian McHugh, Greenfield

CONTRIBUTED PHOTO

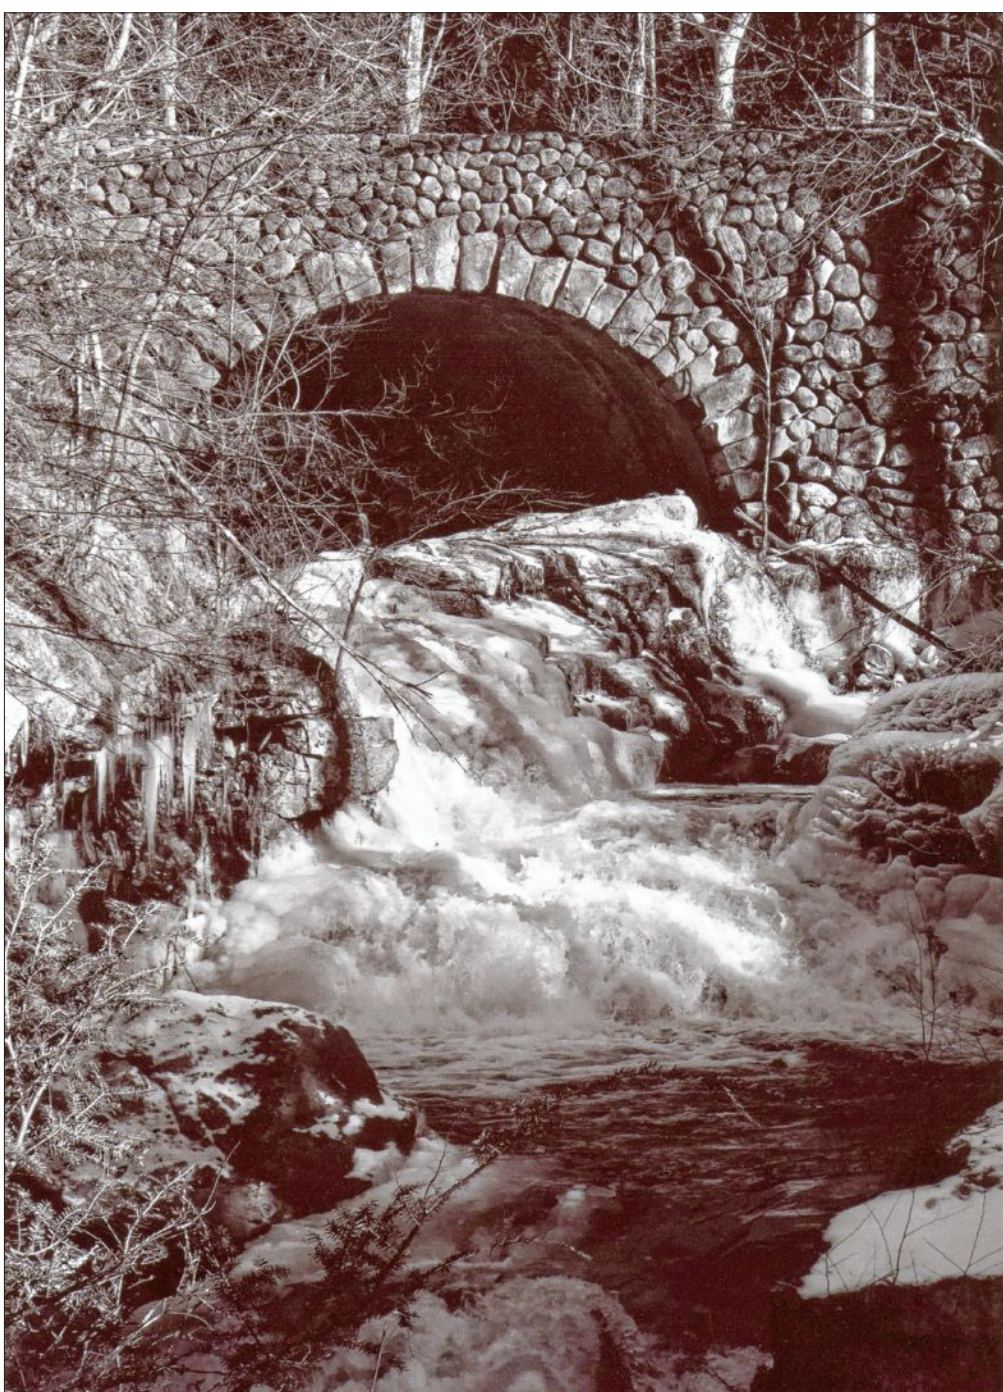

CONTRIBUTED PHOTO
Josh Spring of Colrain took second place for this color photo taken on his property.

CONTRIBUTED PHOTO

CONTRIBUTED PHOTO
Brian Foley of Greenfield won third place for his black-and-white photo of a gull on a frozen Barton Cove.

CONTRIBUTED PHOTO

CONTRIBUTED PHOTO
Melissa Murphy won second place for her black-and-white photo of Doane's Falls in Royalston.

CONTRIBUTED PHOTO

First place — black and white: Kaitlyn Cawthorn, Colrain

CONTRIBUTED PHOTO