About the Friends

The Friends of Greenfield Recreation, a 501c(3) organization, was established in 1983 in order to bring together residents of Greenfield who are interested in sustaining recreational activities, parks, and opportunities in Greenfield.

The Friends have strived to provide financial and volunteer assistance to the Greenfield Recreation Department in order to help sustain recreational opportunities for Greenfield residents.

"Together We Can Do More"

About the Recreation Dept

The Greenfield Recreation Department serves over 17,000 people directly and twice as many indirectly through 2200 hours of programming and special events. The recreation department also assists in overseeing over 300 acres of parkland and open space and coordinates with over 300 volunteers and 50 local organizations

The Recreation Department strives to provide recreational experiences for all ages, provide community activities for fun and celebration, offer affordable and accessible programs, provide diverse learning experiences, promote lifelong health and wellness, and maintain environmental stewardship of parks and facilities.
