

GREENFIELD

Costume contest winners announced in 7 categories

Staff Report

GREENFIELD — Fourteen contestants were awarded for their costumes during Sunday's Downtown Trick-or-Treat and Rag Shag Parade.

Categories included Best Homemade, Most Original, Best Cartoon Character, Scariest, Cutest, Adult Open Category and Group/Family Category.

Best Homemade

■ First place: Jeremiah Ben of Turners Falls, dressed as a Greenfield police officer with Officer Donut

■ Second place: Abygail Youmell of Greenfield, dressed as a robot

Most Original

■ First place: Brooks Williams of Greenfield, dressed as an alien

■ Second place: Ryker Russin of Greenfield, dressed as the Terminator

Scariest

■ First place: Felicia Gallison of Greenfield, dressed as a bloody girl

■ Second place: Emily Romero of Greenfield, dressed as a bunny

STAFF PHOTO/JULIAN MENDOZA

Abygail Youmell of Greenfield participates in Sunday's Greenfield Rag Shag Parade. Youmell received second place in the Best Homemade category of the costume contest.

Cutest

■ First place: Zayden Jackson of Greenfield, dressed as a baby lion

■ Second place: Japera Gallareo of Turners Falls, as a sugar skull

Best Cartoon Character

■ First place: Azalea Kromholz of Greenfield, dressed as Poison Ivy

■ Second place: Dylan Bearmond of Charlemont, dressed as Minecraft

Adult Open Category

■ First place: Joshua Moran of Greenfield, dressed as Bob Ross

■ Second place: Stephen Cronen-Townsend of Greenfield, dressed as Beaker

Group/Family Category

■ First place: Lila Lively and her minions of Greenfield, dressed as "Scary Stilts"

■ Second place: Bullock family of Greenfield, dressed as Kool-Aid